foodgrains to the beneficiaries through the network of FPSs in a transparent and accountable manner is carried out by the State Governments.

(c) and (d) Implementation of PDS involves multiple agencies of the Central and State Governments including 4.63 lakh Fair Price Shops (FPSs) in the country. In an operation of such a vast magnitude, some deficiencies cannot be ruled out. In order to make PDS more effective, efficient and accountable, the following measures have been taken:—

(I) The Public Distribution System (Control) Order, 2001 was notified on 31.8.2001 under section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955. The salient features of the Order relate to

(i) proper identification of eligible families,
(ii) issue of ration cards,
(iii) licensing of fair price shops,
(iv) scale of issue and issue prices,
(v) distribution of essential commodities, and
(vi) monitoring.

Any contravention of the provisions of clauses 3,4,6 & 7 of the Order is punishable under section 7 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955.

(II) State Government have been requested to closely monitor HUS at the FPS and other levels and to make arrangements for distribution of PDS commodities in a transparent and accountable manner by involving Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) in rural area^s and local bodies in urban areas.

(III) A Model Citizens' Charter has been formulated and circulated for adoption by all States/U.Ts. in the country, as a measure of social audit.

Schemes for unorganised workforce

*735. SHRI A. VIJAYA RAGHAVAN: Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are any schemes to cater to the health and sanitation, housing, water supply and educational needs of the unorganised work force; and
